If you're trying to bribe a public official, you want to keep the payments under wraps. Yet here we are with the NCAA's former enforcement staff publicly hollering that they "collected" bribes from Nike. That's not exactly the way to keep these illicit payments a secret. If all you're worried about is a football logo over a URL, you might want to know that the NCAA took one of its staffers – former enforcement staffer Diane Moye – to Italy during the 2012 Final Four with a $10,000 Nike purse. Yes, you read that right: The NCAA paid one of its own officials a trip to the Final Four with a $10,000 Nike piece of merchandise. USA TODAY's Larry Co
