Q: How to set default value for typeahead.js I have following problem with my select box (Typeahead.js): The problem: I cannot set a default value for my select box. There is no problem with any other text inputs or textarea. I have the following code: $('.tags').typeahead(null, { displayKey: 'name', source: localTags, template: [ "

", " ", " ", " ", " ", " ", " ", " ", " ",
                                " ", " ", " ", " "
                                ],

The Real Emotion, not the Words, Drives Swoon: Only Sluts Think They're Hot, But the Real Emotion Runs Deep I'm old fashioned, a believer of the old notion that the true female sex drive runs deeper than the mere surface emotions. I've learned over the years that men also crave the more casual kind of sex, a hot and horny night in when sex toys are not needed. So, I'm not the least
