Decidedly not the same after a little break. Main menu Tag Archives: for the sake of... This is a long one, because I really wanted to include some real-life stuff, some work (and not so much job) related stuff. Last time I talked about parenthood and children. I spent many a day with them at the hospital and with them at home. Now, it's time for a little break from all of that, time to look into my future, to think about all the things I could be doing in my life. I want to do a lot of things. I want to take pictures, I want to sing, I want to dance, I want to have a cool beard, I want to be somewhere else, I want to be happy. I want to be happy and satisfied with my life. I want to do those things and still be with my kids. A lot of people in this world have one thing in common: They have a child and they work a lot, and they are not happy. They are not satisfied. Not all people can do everything. Not all people have kids. Not all people have the opportunities to do whatever they want to do, to do things that others cannot do. I want to do things that other people cannot do. I want to take care of other people, I want to help other people, I want to be the person they can come to, the person who can take a part of their lives, because I want to be a person of worth, I want to be a good father. I want to do those things and still be
