The word "beauty" is usually defined as the judgment of human perception. We are taught to look for it in animals. It is not completely correct to assume that animals see the world as we do. But we do see it through the eyes of animals that know how to read a familiar place and learn familiar things. In the case of human beings, and of birds, we see the world directly as we ourselves are able to comprehend it. The love of beauty that animals have for their environment is the greatest of all motives. M

The fact that the single-issue candidate won the 1996 presidential election, but lost the popular vote, has led many to question whether the two parties are necessarily incompatible. It must be noted, however, that the two parties have a long and successful tradition and history of government cooperation. 0cc13bf012
