First announced last year as part of Total War: WARHAMMER II DLC, a wide-ranging free update for both Total War: WARHAMMER II and Total War: SHOGUN 2 Empires, comes the Legendary Lord Alith Anar: Shadow King, an all-new playable Legendary Lord who brings with him some of the most exotic and powerful units seen in the Mortal Empires Campaign. Alith Anar is the son of House Anar, leading the last of the noble line of their long-vanquished ancestral foes, the Druchii. As the Dragon God's pawn, Alith Anar has been set on revenge by Jormungandr himself, and was last seen escaping the creatures of Tyr to pledge himself to the Shadow Realm. Having spent the last decade preparing to return to Nagarythe, Alith Anar makes his play to the Throne with the vast resources at his disposal, hoping to use his arrival to unite the shattered northern kingdoms once again and crush the attacking forces of the vile Volgan. Choose Your Side Choose to play as either the (newly expanded) Mortal or Eye of the Vortex campaigns for the chance to recruit Alith Anar as a Legendary Lord of your choice and uncover new and exciting ways to play in total-war. With his arrival comes the return of the powerful and exotic High Elf units, as well as a new Skirmish Map called "A King in Shadow", that brings Alith Anar to light for the first time. With the release of Alith Anar also comes the new side-campaign map "The Death of Strife". Set in Nagarythe once again, this new map echoes the events of the Mortal Empires campaign. A New History As in the Mortal Empires campaign, the Eye of the Vortex campaign sees Victory in battle led to changes in the world, often by none other than the gods. In addition, the total-war changes during the Eye of the Vortex campaign also bring with them changes in gameplay for the first time since Total War: WARHAMMER: The Fight for the Crown. Alith Anar also comes with the ability to unlock access to the two new classes: the Fool and the Initiate. In the Fool, players can seek aid in battle from any of four unique units. Hiding amongst the enemy, they can periodically emerge to absorb blows before going back to the shadows again. The Initiate can enter battle in the form of a ghost. Cloaked in darkness, he moves

>I am the elder daughter of Karol Kortík from Slovakia. Both of my parents where born between the years 1922-1923! My Great Grandparents were born in Czechoslovakia in years 1876-1877, immigrated to the United States in 1901, 1916 they immigrated to Canada and in 1956 they immigrated to United States again, 1986 my Great Grandparents died there and my Grandmother moved to United States again and rented a house there, in the year 1894 she sent me and my sister as a mail-order bride. That's the story of my life, now it's time for me to write a bit about my schooling. When I look back on my childhood I remember a very happy but yet a lonely childhood. My parents taught me to respect people no matter what skin, religion,... But they never wanted to interfere with my internal system and dreams. I also learned that everyone needs privacy and a safe place to hide away, but at the same time not to be scared of yourself. My parents taught me that every children needs to feel safe and secure, they tried to show me how to take care of myself so I could handle the unpredictable life. One part of my childhood went with my grandma and my parents, one part was spent with my sister, as she was only a young kid, let alone she, having to face the adult world. Don't get me wrong, I loved to be with her but not every day and not from morning to night like I did with my parents and grandma. I did remember having kindergarten for 2 to 6 years but in this case I also felt that you spent too much time there, studying and not enough playing. So after some time I stopped going to elementary school. When I was 7 years old I started my middle school. At this point my life
