city. You play as a duck fighting for your life, against the city in which you live. You're never alone, never bored. Just have a LOT of the city stitched to your backside. Four Millenia is inspired by video games and movies from the 80's and 90's. From the cyberpunk – Blade Runner to the glow in the dark - 8-bit games. It's a hybrid of side scrolling, shmups, fighting games, platforming and platformer. Under the hood of Four Millenia you'll find some of the best production values, motion capture, live action and outstanding voice acting.
