InventoriaÅ .Global accounting firms at the forefront of big data Since the inception of the internet, there have been many new waves and technologies which revolutionized the traditional ways of communicating with people. For example, email was introduced in the early 1990s and has since become one of the mainstays of the internet and how people communicate with one another. In fact, email is today considered the most popular and fundamental form of the internet. The email was the first technology that allowed online communication to be widespread to billions of people at the same time, at the same speed, and with the same reliability. This is because of the standardization that email puts in place. Email is such a fundamental technology that it's almost difficult to imagine a world without it. However, the development and evolution of email from the very first days of the internet have also been seen in the evolution of ways that companies and individuals communicate with one another online. Due to its many benefits, email has provided the platform for almost every business in the modern world to communicate with their clients and customers. However, despite this, there were very few companies that were able to understand the true capabilities that email can offer. Even though email was designed to be an informative service, a lot of companies never thought about this potential and didn't explore its true capabilities. Because of this, people had a hard time to understand the many ways that email could be used for marketing purposes. Although email is a very

Its main holding company is the Islamabad Stock Exchange Limited (ISE). The company was established as a government institution of Pakistan in 1951. The government of Pakistan is the holding company's owner. During the period of 1950-1951, the stock market system was introduced in Pakistan and the government was legally allowed to hold any percentage of the stocks. The first government holding was Pakistan Chemical Limited; this was followed by Pakistan Petroleum Limited in 1954, the Federal Governmental Insurance Company Limited in 1959, Pakistan Insurance Corporation Limited in 1961, Pakistan Ports and Shipping Corporation Limited in 1962, Pakistan Rubber and Chemicals Limited in 1970, Pakistan Tobacco Company Limited in 1972, Pakistan Airlines Limited in 1974, Pakistan Steel Mills Limited in 1976 and Pakistan Railway Limited in 1979. In 1979, Pakistan Holding was created. Pakistan Holding Limited operates through six divisions: Financial Services Infrastructure Hotels & Leisure Real Estate Trade & Commerce Textiles & Paper Industries The company is also listed in the Pakistani Bourse Index. History Pakistan Holding Limited, the holding company was set up on August 20, 1979, as a Government-owned limited company. It has its headquarters in Islamabad, Pakistan. It has 1,394 employees in 85 departments. Its subsidiaries operate in the fields of stock exchanges, brokerage, insurance, steel, railways, ports, hotels & resorts, retail, real estate, textiles and paper industries. The Federal Government of Pakistan was the largest shareholder in the company when it was set up in 1979. A special resolution under the Companies Act was passed on May 8, 1979, to carry out this initial step to control the government holding in the stock market. The resolution, which was signed by Commerce Minister Arbab Sadat Durrani, Finance Minister Waheed Ullah Khan, and Chairman ISE Atif Hamid, stipulated that 30 per cent of the stocks of all the listed companies should be in government's hands. This allowed the government to control about the market, which it bought in at par. In August 2015, the entire government holding in PHL was transferred to a new company - Pakistan Investment Holding Limited. This new holding was incorporated in 2016.
