You will need: 1 - 1 cm of cotton fabric (I used this one, but you can use whatever you like) 2 - 1 cm of lace 3 - 1 cm ribbon for the bow How to make a headband: 1. Glue or sew a strip of fabric to the knitted knit (Fig. 1, 2) a strip of fabric with a length equal to the length of the head circumference (Fig. 1, 2). It is better to cut a little more than necessary in length, as the strip will need to be trimmed, and it is better to make a reserve. Then fold the fabric in half and thread the fabric ribbon face-to-face (figs. 1, 2). 2. Now you need to sew the seam at the top and bottom of the headband. 3. Put the headband on your head and make small stitches at the very edge of the seam to secure the fabric. 4. Cut off the extra long strip of fabric. 5. Now you need to sew a braid to the center of the headband so that it surrounds the entire headband (Fig. 3). 6. Thread the braid into the seam at the back of the head and leave the ends long enough to tie them in a bow. 7. Fold the ends of the braid lengthwise to sew them together and tie them at the back of the head. Figure 3. Warm headband with knot 1. If you have trouble making a straight parting, use hairpins. 2. Make two symmetrical ponytails (fig. 4). 3. 3 Put the braid aside to sew it on later. 4. Now you want to do what's called an "instant" haircut. 5. You should have two "arcs" - front and back. 6. Insert both "arcs" into the front braids and secure with bobby pins. 7. Fold back the arcs and you have a head silhouette. 8. Tie two ribbons to your hair as shown in the picture and start braiding your hair. 9. Tie a knot so the hair doesn't come undone and get in your way. 10. Skip two pairs of ribbons in the center - in order to weave braids into your hairstyle. 11. Tie a beautiful ribbon bow at the back of your head. Such a hairstyle looks very interesting and stylish. It is perfect for a trip to the theater or for a graduation party. And all this you can do yourself, without the help of a master. To create the image you will need a comb, as well as hair foam and hairspray to complete the hairstyle. In addition, you should have in your arsenal a comb with wide teeth and a comb with frequent teeth. 1. Divide your hair into two parts and comb it out. 2. Make a comb through the hair on the side of your face and fix it with a barrette. 3. 3. Separate the hair at the nape of the neck in a horizontal plane and secure it to the back of the head with a barrette.
