program. Bebop Alpha released! Bebop Alpha has been released today! Beta 3 has been released to the public, and it's pretty stable as far as we're concerned. Here's a link to the beta 3 release: Here's a link to the alpha-beta3 release: Bebop Alpha is almost finished! All we need to do is add the ability to load a folder, update the release version number in the menu, add a better/smoothier scrollbar, add some random colors to the fonts, and maybe add a graphical interface for the "share/share it!" function. Alpha release notes: Bebop Alpha is a little script that makes text files into beeps. Be you are not a computer scientist or a musician, Bebop Alpha is a very easy script to use.
