crack, patches, serial numbers, registration codes, key generator, pirate key, .Q: Why does Jetty's thread pool use Integer.MAX_VALUE? Jetty's thread pool is specified here: Why does it use the max pool size of Integer.MAX_VALUE threads instead of the nice round number, say, 5? A:

As you see on the page you've linked, the pool size is a Runtime System property which defaults to Int.MAX_VALUE when not specified. See Category: Housing What's out there for home buyers in the off-airport Phoenix market? In Phoenix, there are a few neighborhoods that offer, well, variety. For those looking for new listings in the central part of town, a quick search of MLS data shows five neighborhoods with several homes on the market. Those are: and the median list price is up to $750,000, according to Redfin.com. But those great homes can be a little out of the way, and there's often not much to do nearby. The nearest shopping mall, for example, is the Westgate that's about a mile away.

Property Monster has dozens of Phoenix off-airport listings that are available to home buyers, and the homes are generally priced under $550,000. While those are nice homes in great neighborhoods, many of the listings are just a short drive from other residential areas - such as

Paradise Valley and Scot
